9	Defendant.
10
11	possession with intent to distribute heroin. This Court has entered an order for an in camera
12	hearing to determine whether, under Rovario v. United States , 353 U.S. 53, 59 (1957),
13	information from two confidential sources in this case should be disclosed to the defendant.
14	Participating in the in camera hearing will be Assistant United States Attorney Matthew A.
15	Lamberti, counsel for the United States; a Drug Enforcement Administration agent; Assistant
16	Federal Public Defender Cynthia C. Lie, counsel for defendant Felix Leyva-Anaya; the two
17	confidential sources; a certified shorthand reporter; and a Spanish-language translator.
18	IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:
19	1. The two confidential sources shall be questioned separately and outside the
20	presence of each other.
21	2. Per the discussion at the hearing on this matter on October 18, 2006, the
22	confidential sources shall not be asked to disclose their home address or similar personal
23	information, and shall not be asked to disclose any information about any current or past
24	investigations.
25	3. Defense counsel Ms. Lie shall be permitted to participate in the in camera hearing
26	and to cross-examine the two confidential sources during the hearing.
